

Ballard Community Taskforce on Homelessness & Hunger (BCTHH)

A community collaborative effort

---

THURSDAY, MAY 28, 2015, 10:30 AM – NOON
Nyer Urness House, 1753 NSW 56th St., East Meeting Room

AGENDA

- Introductions 10 min.

- Announcements 10 min.
  - Formulation of BCTHH subcommittee to draft request to City of Seattle for it to take responsibility for aiding those people living in their vehicles, who comprise 1/3 of all unsheltered homeless – Joshua Liljenstolpe
  - Commitment to regularly inform BCTHH of news from Lake City and University District taskforces, and those groups of news from Ballard – Sally Kinney
  - Other announcements

- Job-Driven National Emergency Grant 5 min.
Anne Masters, WorkSource Social Services Specialist, Employment and Training

- Potential Employment and Education Opportunities 5 min.
Mario Bailey, WorkSource Marketing Specialist

- Real-World Examples of People Experiencing Homelessness and Status of SDOT Posting of No Parking 2-5 AM signs in Magnolia & Interbay 10 min.
Jean Darsie and Jennifer Adams

- Introduction of On Vehicle Noticing (OVN) of Vehicles in Scofflaw 10 min.
Katie Truelove, Policy & Program Analyst, Seattle Municipal Court

- Companionship with People Experiencing Homelessness 30 min.
Rex Holbein, Facing Homelessness
After years of combining architectural practice and ad hoc homelessness advocacy, Rex closed his practice to form a non-profit which uses visual storytelling and art advocacy to build a new awareness about homelessness. He believes we can best address this issue when all the community is involved.

---

For more info about BCTHH, contact Joshua Liljenstolpe, ballardhomeless@gmail.com